ASH GREEN

A white Ford Escort Mk1 station wagon is parked on a grassy area. It has two surfboards (one orange, one white) mounted on its roof rack. A wooden trailer is attached to the back, carrying several large, light-colored objects, possibly bags or equipment. In the background, there is a dark blue building with several windows. A person is visible standing near the entrance of the building. The scene is outdoors on a sunny day.
